You think you know the truth
You think you won this game
But I was fooling you
Making you think you fooled me.

But I'm not like that...
I'm smarter than that...
You think you can control me
And yet speak behind my back.
But it's not like that.

You see,
I'm the player in this game
You created.
I'm the player of your heart.
You made it.
I thought you were the one to trust
I thought I really was in love.
But no, I had a plan just in case.
And look what happened,
My plan came to a need.
I was there for it,
Yeah, your game's with me.

I've been through a lot in my years.
I've seen so freaking much, I'm still here.
I've lived through tough times before.
I've been fooled but not anymore.
If you think that you can fool my heart.
My heart's smarter than that.

At first I thought you were the one.
But then I knew you were so not.
Cause whatever is meant to be
Will work out perfectly.
So I'm not gonna fall for your game.
I'm not gonna let you drive me insane!

But I'm not like that...
I'm smarter than that...
You think you can control me
And yet speak behind my back.

But it's not like that.

You see,
I'm the player in this game
You created.
I'm the player of your heart.
You made it.
I thought you were the one to trust
I thought I really was in love.
But no, I had a plan just in case.
And look what happened,
My plan came to a need.
Yeah, your game's with me.

You can do whatever you want.
You can say that you didn't mean it.
You can apologize for being dumb.
But I know I'll never ever forget it.
I'll never ever ever ever forget it!

Looks like I'm a better player
At the game that you created
I think it's time to pass it on,
Let somebody else have a turn...

Oh.
