you dont want this anymore cause there is no sense in holding to peace of mind thats stolen..... furthermore, opinions and thoughts of you have turned into, maybe nothing of the kind I feel I've wasted so much emotion, words, and time..... now its plain to see that you have given up on everything everything and me things change in the worst ways..... so I thought I'd let you know what its like to have your chest ripped open and your heart pulled out to show
what its like to have you ribs unsewn and your heart cold and exposed It used to be that you would give up on everything everything for me but things change in the worst ways.....
what its like to have your heart ripped out leaving your chest empty and cold so i thought I'd let you know what its like to have your chest ripped open and your heart left out to show I just thought I'd let you know.....
