this is not... fair!

lately i've been sleeping a little better alone making my life for the first time in so long i spent a while, collecting smiles indentifying ways to which ive gone don't say, this means everything to me

becasue that's not...fair! because just seem to care i'll take what's left of me, rid myself of this animosity find better feelings in my life won't say, this means everything to me

cuz things will never work out will find the answers in time

it up tonight as i walk myself home i'll kick some stones as i walk alone
get so down, a memory as i walk away from you and me it's here tomorrow won't wait for you... to change your mind won't wait for you...cuz everyhitng will be fine i'll be fine...

i'll be fine...
