"Bap"

I'm yet to say a word, and you left me hanging on the phone now i've caught up to you, for a change i've got you to my own it takes a person like you, to let me talk till i'm blue and still you don't have a clue of all the damage you do to those you're looking through i see a finger writing on a wall it tells me pride runs deep before a fall bap! i think you've got it now

you've pegged a trend today, its this little label that you wear your measure of success to convince someone you really care it takes a person like me, or just a few maybe three to turn around till you see, to pray you down to your knees to give these things an ease there is a chapter and a verse to read and there's a God to send you what you need and if i never even said a word, here in my heart i bare this deep concern

i know we have all lessons here to learn, the other cheek i'm here to turn
