I thought that i would this song for you, in the way that I do
Give you something to write home about, see the way that I know?
I bet you'll stay, I bet I will forget you now the time has come

Say goodbye, don't mean it, I mean goodnight

I thought that I would dream about you girl, in the way that I do Give me reasons I can wake up to... just so you know I bet you'd stay, I bet you will forgive me now the time has come...

Say goodbye, don't mean it, mean goodnight, I'll be alright

Forgive forget all that we had this now ahs gone so let it drown
Beyond this, beyond me

Nothing can change just cause you want it
