Memories, they wash my mind like the frozen rain,
I am numb here, but I can't forget the pain, Death was yesterday and somewhere I have never seen,
So never mind tomorrow boy tomorrow's never been,

And I found you at the River of Styx, all alone, I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the
goad,
And I found you at the river of Styx, all alone,
I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the
goad,

Treachery, Like I, I have never seen,
So never mind your sorrows your demons live for me,
What are we doing, In this place again, You know you got the answer boy, you're lying to yourself,

And I found you at the River of Styx, all alone,
I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the
goad,

And I found you at the River of Styx, all alone,
I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the goad, oh yeah
I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the
goad,

And I found you at the River of Styx, all alone
I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the
goad,
And I found you at the River of Styx, all alone
I see you kicking, you're kicking, kicking against the
goad,

And I found you at the River of Styx, all alone
