the first time I laid my eyes on you I felt the magic in my heart and then I knew just a touch of you could take me higher to a place I've never been it happens when I opened up my arms and let you in

[Chorus:]

baby, everytime I hold you heaven's just a step away
(heaven's just a step away)
can you be an angel
sent to me to light my way and if you wonder why I try to hold you closer every day
it's 'cause everytime I hold you
heaven's just a step away heaven's just a step just a step away only love that's where my life begins all the dreams I've ever dreamed were right here in my hands 'cause when you're lying here beside me and you whispered "babe, I'm yours" I take all the love you give and still come back for more

[chorus]

[guitar solo]

everytime I hold you
(heaven's just a step away)
can you be an angel

(heaven's just a step away)
can you be an angel
sent to me to light my way
everytime I hold you
(heaven's just a step away)
can you be an angel
everytime I hold you
(heaven's just a step away)
