(Vernessa Mitchell, Barbara Mitchell)

When you came my way and ask my name
I look at you and rolled my eyes, yeah
Well, you turn around and you looked at me
And you seemed as though you were surprised, yeah

What have you done to me
To give you a look that was not meant to be
You were mainly passing by
Just to say

Hi-i-i! Hi-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was hi!
ah woh
Hi-i-i! Hi-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was hi!

Well, you stopped the car
And you looked at me
And you asked me do I need a ride, yeah
Well, I looked at you and I shook my head
And I walked on to the other side, yeah

What have you done to me
To give you a look that was not meant to be
You were mainly passing by
Why didn't I say

Hi-i-i! Hi-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was hi!
ah woh
Hi-i-i! Hi-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was hi!

[saxphone solo]

All I have to say to you was hi!
(That's all I have to say to you was)
All I have to say to you was hi!

What have you done to me
To give you a look that was not meant to be
You were mainly passing by
Why didn't I say?
Why didn't I say?

Hi-i-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was
Hi-i-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was

Hi-i-i! (Hi!) Hi-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was hi!
(all I have to say to you was)
ah woh
Hi-i-i! Hi-i-i-i!
All I have to say to you was hi!
