(Narada Michael Walden)

something told me that I loved you in the way you said hello and I am quite surprised to find how fast the wind can change the tide bringing your love into my world something told me that I needed you in the way you hold my hand my heart is touching the stars climbing to Venus or Mars just say you'll never go away

[Chorus:]

I'm a believer in your love for me
(I'm a believer in your love)
I'm a believer in your love
(I'm a believer in your love)
I'm a believer in your love for me
(I'm a believer in your love)
I'm a believer in your love something tells me if I want you you'll come back into my arms give me the chance and you'll find loving can be so divine without you, my soul has broken wings

[chorus]

[saxophone]

[repeat chorus (ad-lib) to fade]
