Two lovers are having their fight again they're tired of saying goodbye standing on the beachside listening to the feet of the passers on the sidewalk there dont make me part of your life again cause im tired of saying goodbye riding my skateboard knocking all the pretty boys in my way im just a round kid causing mass hysteria and i know something nobody knows you ask me if im real or not but what is real or not am i completely right or am i just lost and misguided there is something you oughta know what is real or not that there is nothing wrong so dont tell me i need and counseling
