Oh no not again please tell i'm wrong
It's been ten minutes since they played this song
Or is it the band with the one word name
I get so confused it all sounds the same

The dj must think i'm crazy
Or maybe just an idiot
Last week he was spinning country
Now alternative rock is the shit
Just who do they think they're fooling
With this backwards regiment
They shove it so far down your throat
It's swallowed with an english accent

What happened to my radio?
It used to be cool
Now it just blows

I've been waiting more than an hour
For the request that i just made
"we'll see what we can do about it"
Must mean they're gonna throw it away
They say that they play new music
That it's better than the rest
Switch the channel it's a carbon copy
Take the cutting edge and slit my wrists

Who has all the luck? who has all the fans?
They make a million bucks and burn it in your hands
Who has all the luck? who has all the fans?
They tell you that you're fucked!
But you don't understand
