In this land something dark begins to rise
The evil brings desperation
A quest for our freedom, a quest for our dreams
Fighting for eternity we will win

[Bridge:]
Glory forever, surrender we'll never
In this hour for our power

[Chorus:]
Fight for the power of fantasy
In your heart that will bring dark to fall
It's the strength of your soul
It's your destiny's call
This night decides it all

Open your minds
Open your eyes
Behind the wall of death
There are secrets and lies
We have come to fight
We'll take it back
In this land of forgotten dreams
We will attack
