You walked out on a good love and you found somebody new
And now the one that turned your head is turning her back on you Who's lonely now who's heart is hurtin' I've had my share of those blues Who's lonely now who's head is reeling you're finally feeling it too
Now you need a little sympathy you never should've walked out on me Who's lonely now

I feel a whole lot better I got a new attitude So you can take my crying towel and carry it home with you
Who's lonely now who's heart is hurtin'...

When your rejected you feel neglected it's true In your condition you need attention and you know I'd like to help
But I'm seeing someone else who's lonely now [guitar]
Now you know I'd like to help but I'm seeing someone else
Who's lonely now who's heart is hurtin'...
Who's lonely now who's lonely now who's lonely now Who's lonely now who's heart is hurtin' who's lonely now
