It's just a little creek now
But when the rain comes down it's gonna be a raging river
I just heard my baby say goodbye
He left me here holding back my tears, now he's gone forever
The dam's gonna break and I'ma gonna cry, cry, cry

I'ma gonna cry and I don't care who sees
I wonder if he knows what he's done to me
Gonna love that boy till the day I die
Till the day I do I'm gonna cry, cry, cry

Now, he's gone, the pain's comin' on
I can feel my whole body shakin'
Look here now what's this in my eyes
All I hear ringing in my ear is the sound of my heart breaking
The dam's gonna break and I'ma gonna cry, cry, cry

I'ma gonna cry and I don't care who sees
Gonna love that boy till the day I die
Till the day I do I'm gonna cry, cry, cry

I'ma gonna cry and I don't care who sees
I wonder if he knows what he's done to me
Gonna love that boy till the day I die
Till the day I do I'm gonna cry, cry, cry
Till the day I do I'm gonna cry, cry, cry
