The road behind
Ahead the heights
Turn off the engine
And start to climb
Come on, come on up to the top, up where no one can see
Come on, come on, and we'll take off, in flying dreams

In the valley
Down below
Like dying embers
The lights of home
Come on, come on up to the top, up where no one can see
Come on, come on, and we'll take off, in flying dreams

Nothing is above us
High up on this hill
Feel the pull of something
Pray we always will. Yeah.
The road behind,
Ahead the heights
Turn off the engine
And start to climb
Come on, come on up to the top, up where no one can
see
Come on, come on, and we'll take off, in flying dreams

Come on come on Come on come on
