Let's hide the truth with the best lie
Let's deceive the reality with the greatest dream
Even though we're such a couple
I don't want to lose you
Say, why are you so uneasy?
I don't want anything like a stable love

Let's throw off our shoes together
And run off barefooted
-I'll never let go-
Swimming in the apathy
I've gone running in the doubts
-I'll never let go-
Let's throw off our shoes together
And run off barefooted
-I'll never let go-
Even if your eyes are blinded by the sun
Don't let go your hand
-I'll never let go-

Let's entrust our sadness to the gentle rain
And recall happiness
I can't see where we're going
But I'm not afraid
Where are our tomorrow selves?

Let's throw off our shoes together
And run off barefooted
-I'll never let go-
Swimming in the apathy
I've gone running in the doubts
-I'll never let go-
Let's throw off our shoes together
And run off barefooted
-I'll never let go-
Even if your eyes are blinded by the sun
Don't let go your hand
-I'll never let go-
