Bucketbot can carry 10 times his body wait;
useful for carrying machinery and coffins throughout the park.

If you get lost, find the nearest coop or mausoleum.
Sometimes they look the same.

Bucketheadland is not affiliated with the tri-state crematorium or its repair facilities.

Anamoatronic characters should be bolted down at all times.

Please report both characters.

We built a mausoleum...setup a walkthrough...
We made the model with openings, where you can walk in and get a beinge...I wish I had the idea...
Couple of different things, a wedge, that way you could get the effect of the staging the riot scenes, decide if they were gonna work or not...I worked with Bill-ger Smacks...and
his people,
and they were scalding these little bucket...binge...guys... and the model pretty much protrayed the way the ride
was built...
Uh, the McFadden brothers made suggestions all along...

Keep all hands, arms, stubs inside the vehicle at all times...

All types of persons, bags, or atrificial limbs...

You must be atleast 100 meters tall to battle Bootzilla...
Cattle prods can be rented inside the main entrance or purchased at the tool shed in the Slaughterzone...
Ask about our personalized engravings...

HEY! You're not supposed to drink that embalming fluid!!!!
