If the angel should awake
Live the life I want to fight
Truly spoken, still I'm broken
Live to see, the promise shine

Running...

In the shadow, off an angel
With the promise, of the life
In the darkness, after daughter
In the burning of the night

If the angel should awaken
Live the life I want to fight
Truly spoken, still I'm broken
Live to see, the promise shine
(I can never let this go)

If the angel should awaken
Live the life I want to fight
Truly spoken, still I'm broken
Live to see, the promise shine
The promise shine
The promise shine
