Breakdown
can you see through the flame of my heart how much i am sad when you left me on my own i don't know what to tell you you body fail me not feel your skin on mine or your hand around me boy you make me cry all the time open yours eyes you hurt myself but you don't understand it the heartbreak i live my life without you i never feel this for someone you're the first and the last our love was so complicated but i still believe yours feelings towards me wasn't sincere
