I remember summers, you & me lasting forever
Holidays come & we'd never, never ever be apart
I remember spending, all of my time, every minute
The two of us we had our own rhythm, intune with the beat of my heart

Now in the summer (I miss you)
& in the winter (I miss you)
It don't matter (what I do)
Since you went away, since you went away
Now in the summer (I miss you)
& in the winter (I miss you)
It don't matter what I do
It don't matter what I say
You left it

You took a holiday from us
Took a trip & left your love
If your heart wasn't down forever
You should have told me where it was
You took a holiday from me
I guess you needed to be free
Would have loved you with no measure
& now you got me asking
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
did you go?
(where did you go huh?) Where did my heart go?
You took a holiday
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
did you go?
Why did you leave?
This ain't no holiday for me

Walkin', watching you leave there's no talking Back in my arms it's so shocking, guess forever was just a dream
I think we could have made it, but our history now is fading
My image of the future is changing & baby damn that thing called destiny, got the best of me

Now in the summer (I miss you)
& in the winter (I miss you)
It don't matter what I do
It don't matter what I say
You left it

You took a holiday from us
If your heart wasn't down forever

You should have told me where it was
You took a holiday from me
I guess you needed to be free
Would have loved you with no measure
& now you got me asking
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
did you go?
(where did you go huh?) Where did my heart go?
You took a holiday
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
Where (where did you go huh?, where did you go huh?)
did you go?
Why did you leave?
This ain't no holiday for me

If I could take a step back, make it turn out different
I would hide those bags, and IÂ'd tear that ticket
Never thought you and me would be done in a minute
Now IÂ'm making new plans and youÂ're just not in it

If I could take a step back, make it turn out different
I would hide those bags, and IÂ'd tear that ticket
Never thought you and me would be done in a minute
Now IÂ'm making new plans and youÂ're just not in it
(Where did you go?)

You took a Holiday from us
Took a trip and left your love
If your heart went down forever
ShouldÂ've told me where it was
You took a Holiday from me
I guess you needed to be free
Would have loved you with no measure
And now you got me asking

Where did you go? (Where?) Where did you go?
(Where?)
Where did you go? (Where?) Where did you go?
(Where?)

Where did you go? (Where?) Where did my heart go?
You take a Holiday

Where did you go? (Where?) Where did you go?
(Where?)
Where did you go? (Where?) Where did you go?
(Where?)
Where did you go? (Where?) Why do you live?
Is ain't a Holiday for me
