Every day it's the same
I see you
And my heart just slips away

Every day it's the same
I see you
But you just look away

Gotta let you see the part of me
That won't give up on you
Gotta make you feel
The way I do (yeah)

Sitting here on my own
Thoughts are all alone
Tell me anything over and over again

As long as you'll stay a while
When will you be mine?
I'll ask you one more time

Every day it's the same
I know you don't see me there
Every day it's the same
I know you wouldn't care anyway

I'll ask you once
I'll ask you twice
I'll ask a thousand times
