We marvel at the fallacy of conformity
We marvel at our dreams
But the main, yes, the main course of this last supper
Is establishing what this doctrine means.

Do we interpret with ambiguity
Or if Thee permits, consistently
If Thou art the Bread of Life
Will you grant me release from all this accountability?

It's marvelous love that gets us up in the morning

Says, "Hey wake, it's here"
It's marvelous love that gets us up in the morning

Seclusion is my Savior
Along with your Son
Seclusion is my Shepard
God damn the sinners
God will damn the world
The wicked, the righteous, the castaway
All those within the fray
