Cover me
In stillness you are welcome here
Comfort me
And teach me Lord to know Your peace

I look to the cross
Lord, let me see Your love anew
There I find peace
There I find peace again

Draw me near into Your arms
The strength I know left my soul
To rest in You, my only hope

I look to the cross
Lord, let me see Your love anew
'Cause there I find peace
There I find peace again

I look to the cross
Lord, let me see Your love anew
'Cause there I find peace
There I find peace again

Oh, I found peace again
In You I found, I found peace again

'Cause the Lord, my light and my salvation
In whom then I shall be afraid
I'll never be the same

The Lord, my light and my salvation
In whom then I shall be afraid
I'll never be the same again
In You I find peace again

I look to the cross
Lord, let me see Your love anew
There I find peace
There I find peace again in You

I look to the cross

Lord, let me see Your love anew
'Cause there I find peace
There I find peace again
