

Hillsong London "The Call"

Visit "The Call" on MotoLyrics.com

Whoa, now's the time to change this world
Whoa, broken hearts will hear Your Word
Whoa, the cry of freedom fills the earth
Because of You we stand in hope

Whoa, take this stand don't be afraid
Whoa, break the chains of fear to fail
Whoa, Christ has brought the victory
Because of You we stand in hope

All You are is everything I need
We'll see the lost come home
And find their King
I want to be a light that shines for You
To see You lifted high in love and truth

Whoa, unified we hear the call
Whoa, to reach this city for You, Lord
Whoa, we can be the change for earth
Because of You we stand in hope
