In the name of love lost I'm frozen to her and I want you to come build me a bridge soaked in gasoline and pass the torch.

Hey baby let me be your Valentine, St. Valentine...
Suck the sorrow out of you and try to keep a lie alive.
Like St. Valentine

Like the couple from Pompeii,
our drama's put on display.
Along with a dove, stuffed
In a coffin of glass entitled
"Love, Lust and the Holy Ghost".

Those were the days.

Hey baby let me be your Valentine, St. Valentine,
Suck the sorrow out of you and try to keep a lie alive.
Hey baby let me be your Valentine, St. Valentine,
Suck the sorrow out of you and try to keep a lie alive.

Like Saint Valentine.

Love's the only war worth dying for.
Build me up to knock me down, I'm all yours.

for now

Hey baby let me be your Valentine, St. Valentine,
Suck the sorrow out of you and try to keep a lie alive.
Hey baby let me be your Valentine, St. Valentine,
Suck the sorrow out of you and try to keep a lie alive.
Like Saint Valentine.

Hey baby let me be your valentine, St. Valentine,
Hey baby let me be your valentine, St. Valentine,
yeah we're like st valentine, st valentine
Hey baby let me be your valentine, St. Valentine,
Like Saint Valentine.
