Obey them

The legion speaks out

Carnal realm will not seize

For rewards in pain

Will make its price so eloquent

Incur

Bare witness

Be torn to shreds within these walls

Tyrannize

Elite breed perversity

Formal with hearts on sleeves

Bloodhounds for the thrashing

Made hell-bent and hammered down

Mortified

At the mention of mercy

Assault on dignity is grievous

Its hook

Takes threshold subjected to paralysis

Incur

Bare witness

Be torn to shreds within these walls

Forsaken strangers

Your domain will drain all confidence

On the vow

On the oath

On the realm

Send down your reign

On the vow

On the oath

On the realm

Send down your reign

In sanctions

Lie and thrive

Vehemence
So valiantly vivid
Preying on pretension
Crossed out
To whispers of the crying innocence

Docile
For salvation
Under watchful eye
For repentance
In sanctity
For subjects in their horror show

Send down your reign
Send down your reign

Seal insurrection
Seal insurrection
In sanctions

Union
The code of silence for theory
Pigs are prepared for the spit
A renewed dispute
Clandestine in its origin

Excursion
Neither seen nor heard
Protectors of inner feuds

Exalted
In instinct
And answer to the nemesis

On the vow
On the oath
On the realm
Send down your reign

On the vow
On the oath
On the realm
Send down your reign

Ignore the warnings
Ignore the warnings
