"Sorcery Of The Nameless"

On a nameless meadow
By ageless time
On a borderless field
The dreams drift on by
By rhythm of the moon
By melody of the fire
This moment is longer
Here slows down the time
Similar steps behind
Cant grand a new beginning
The scent of the purest
Primordial night

Winters pale light, stretches its cobwebs
Through these shadows, livelier than ever

Each bright sphere of the moon
Gleams in magic
The nights sounds of wild
Accompany the beats
Of this out tuned dance
Until silence
Cuts in deep and claws
The branches are barely moving
Yet the winds howl splits ears
One sight can cover more
Till cores, till cells, till meanings
For a glimpse of a lifetime
For a second of eternity
Turn warmer the blood again
Assemble the breath of life
