Tell me

there's another (sic)

dream

Another

time

Another

space

Another

further

distance

Stretching

In between

Are we really

all we seem

(repeats after last verse)

A silent birth

before we scream

We need a further

distance

Stretching in between

You,

now,

looking into me.

Here we are

It's enough

to say,

Falling further

distance

Stretching

in between
