Verse: Woke up this morning to a simple song in my head, and it wasn't long before I realized what day it was then the tears fell down, I got a bit emotional
There she lay, fast asleep I said a prayer for the Lord to keep her here

Chorus: 18 years and another cup of coffee we've been keepin' it together fueled by love and drenched by tears 18 years and it's only gettin' better a bit older, a bit weathered still we've managed pullin' 18 years

Verse: We've got a daughter, she's seventeen and then soon, she'll hit eighteen Our pride and joy, we've done our best time is comin' 'round for her to do the rest On her own, very soon, then I'll sing her this simple tune

Chorus: 18 years and another cup of coffee she'll be keepin' it together fueled by love and drenched by tears 18 years and only getting better Through some very stormy weather off into the world at 18 years

Bridge: I wanna hold on to the moments in my life, but that can be so hard to do

All I can do is to treasure this time, love every moment here with you

Repeat chorus/Here's to another lovin' wonderful 18 years
