Verse: I was doin' some drinkin' in a Hollywood bar when in walked my Favorite lady rock star. She was there and I was here this was my shot I was aware When I got up to the bar to make my move, I felt like I had nothin' to lose I walked up and tipped my hat, tripped and fell almost landed in her lap

Chorus: I wrecked my moment with Sheryl Crow, I ruined my shot at bein' With a big star, what should have been well I'll never know

'Cause I wrecked my moment with Sheryl Crow

Verse: I'm at a music convention in the south of France, and so was Sheryl Well how about that this was my shot to redeem myself, I wasn't gonna settle for Anything less She was heading my way and she looked so good, I was Feelin' kind of dizzy from that rich French food.

When we finally came face to face

Somethin' hit me bad, and I threw up. Repeat

Chorus/Bride:

I wrecked my moment with Sheryl Crow, I blew it all I screwed up

It's her loss but then maybe not, if I get a second chance it could be her luck Verse: It was Saturday night and it was late, I had seven shots of whisky, well maybe eight.

There she was walkin' down the street, she looked so sexy and she looked so sweet We checked into a little seedy motel, made love all night unbelievably well when I awoke the room was a blur, she turned to me, man it wasn't even her. Repeat Chorus.

And that's my story 'bout Sheryl CrowÃ¢â€šâ€ahh shucks!
