How do I begin to stop loving you?
How do I go on by letting go?
How do I pretend I know what to do
When deep inside I know that I don't?

My heart is weak, too tired to sleep
I'm incomplete like a day without sunshine
God only knows this faded soul
Will stand alone waiting on sunshine

How do I forget to remember you?
Tell me how to mend a broken heart?
How can I explain what I'm going through?
It's like trying to find a shadow in the dark

My heart is weak, too tired to sleep
I'm incomplete like a day without sunshine
God only knows this faded soul
Will stand alone waiting on sunshine, oh yeah

My heart is weak, I just can't sleep
I'm in too deep waiting on sunshine
And God only knows this faded soul
Will stand alone waiting on, waiting on
Waiting on sunshine, sunshine, sunshine
Sunshine, sunshine, sunshine
