I need your love
I need your love
I look at the stars above
and I need your love

I need your taste
I need your taste
I hope it won't go to waste
'Cos I need your taste

I need your sight
I need your sight
Like the sun you are bright
Oh I need your sight

I need your touch
I need your touch
You don't need very much
But I need your touch

I need your love

I need your love
I look at the stars above
and I need your love

I need your taste
I need your taste
I hope it won't go to waste
'Cos I need your taste

I need your sight
I need your sight
Like the sun you are bright
Oh I need your sight

I need your touch
I need your touch
You don't need very much
But I need your touch

I need your love
