Just get away!
I cant deal with you today
my thoughts are the only things that I can trust
and they're losing credibility

I don't need this right now
JUST GET AWAY
your words are vomit
just get out of my face
AWAY

There are too many demons inside of my head
too many doctors and never enough friends

Just get away
get out of my face
I know it's cliché of me to say all this but it's the truth
so just stay away
