So you don't shoot up and you don't smoke weed but it's suddenly okay to do the deed follow your thing around all day and night looking to get laid by anything in sight wasn't this supposed to be a call to arms against anything that will do us harm? be sure to go vegan and yell protest chants but you can't keep tall tommy in your pants

BRING BACK THE THIRD X!

It's painful for me to watch you live this way treating your body like a used Chevrolet you don't smoke and of course you don't drink but it's okay, "at least you can think" scene sex is fine if you're in a band as long as an X is drawn on your hand your edge is straight but your vans'-a-rockin' to bring back the X WE'RE COMINGG KNOCKIN!

BRING IT BACK GO!
