Mama said it was raining on the day that I was born
And it rained the day that daddy passed away
Now everytime it rains it tears into my brain
And today is gonna be a rainy day.

It's gonna rain today cause you just walked away
The clouds are here and soon the rain will fall
And the rain that falls today will wash my world away
And this will be the biggest storm of all.

--- Instrumental ---

On the day that I first met you I thought my life would change
Your shining face turned all the clouds away
Now as I sat here crying the clouds are back again
Today is gonna be a rainy day.

It's gonna rain today cause you just walked away
The clouds are here and soon the rain will fall
And the rain that falls today will wash my world away
And this will be the biggest storm of all...
