I'm in the middle of a teardrop
I'm at the start of a loneliness
I'm at the stop of a happiness
I never dreamed it would come to this.

I'm on the break of a misery
I'm at the edge of reality
That I'm about to be a memory
I'm in the middle of a teardrop.

When our love affair went wrong
Well, I could feel it coming on
Hug by hug and kiss by kiss you slipped away
Now that great moment we once shared
Is disappearing in thin air
And it looks as if at times I'm on the way.

I'm in the middle of a teardrop
I'm at the start of a loneliness
I'm at the stop of a happiness
I never dreamed it would come to this.

Yes, I'm about to be a memory
I'm in the middle of a teardrop...
