I've got you on my mind again
You've been there since I don't know when I said that I'd forget, that I'd never look back That I'd find somebody else so little further down the track.

But that same old hurt is back once more
It's certain you walked out the door
And as the long day ends and the lonely night begin
I've got you on my mind again.

Well, I said that you'd be out of mind when you've got out of sight
That there'd never be one lonely moment or one sleepless night
But lately I've been finding out just what a heartache means
For every time I close my eyes I see you in my dreams.

And I've got you on my mind again
You've been there since I don't know when I said that I'd forget and I'd never look back
That I'd find somebody else so little further down the track.

But that same old hurt is back once more
It's certain you walked out the door
And as the long day ends and the lonely night begin
I've got you on my mind again.

I've got you on my mind again...
