

Buck Owens

"Natural Born Loser"

Visit "Natural Born Loser" on MotoLyrics.com

I guess I was born with bad luck
Never heard a good luck call
And if it wasn't for bad luck
I wouldn't have any luck at all.

Everybody's luck keeps changing
But my luck stays the same
I call and nobody listens
And no one remembers my name.

I'm a natural loser, loser
Walkin' down the loser's trail
I'm a natural loser, loser
All I'll ever do is fail.

Well, I drove over to Las Vegas
In my nine thousand dollar Cadillac
And before I could say Jack Robinson
I was a walkin' back.

And now it seemed boat sold for a nickel
It stayed on sail for a week
I'd have to run up and down the faint
Yellin' gee-whiz ain't that cheek.

I'm a natural loser, loser
Walkin' down the loser's trail
I'm a natural loser, loser
All I'll ever do is fail.

Walkin' down the loser's trail
All I'll ever do is fail...

Visit Buck Owens page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.