Well, the pitty, pitty, patter of a little bitty feet's
Gonna pitty, pitty, patter through our house
A gonna be a comin' in June, gonna stop our honeymoon
'Cause the pitty, pitty, patter of a little bitty feet's.

Gonna pitty, pitty, patter
Through our house
I gotta be a thinkin' of a name
Yeah, there's gonna be a great big change.

Gonna be a lookin' for a bottle in the middle of the night
Lookin' for a chance to hold mama tight
A washin' little diapers every day
A big doctor bill I'm gonna have to pay, pay, pay.

Oh, the pitty, pitty, patter
Through our house
I gotta be a thinkin' of a name
Yeah, there's gonna be a great big change.
