Last night I played the jukebox o'er and o'er But it only made me miss you more and more I cried with every sad song I heard play
And if it takes this to make you happy it's the price I'll have to pay.

I'll not stand in your way I'll go on along
So I'll have one more bottle and I'll play those sad sad songs
It will help me to get through another day
And if it takes this to make you happy it's the price I'll
have to pay.

I'll not stand in your way I'll go on along
So I'll have one more bottle and I'll play those sad sad
songs
It will help me to get through another day
And if it takes this to make you happy it's the price I'll have to pay.

And if it takes this to make you happy it's the price I'll
have to pay...
