Somebody put a quarter in the jukebox
Somebody play that certain hurtin' song
That one about forever
That one about no never
That one about the good love that's gone wrong

I tell our friends I'm doin' fine without you
I tell our friends I never am alone
But I'm affraid they'll know it
Yes I'm affraid I'll show it
Cos all I ever play is that same old song

[CHORUS]

So I'm sittin' here a-staring at the jukebox
Hopin' that somebody comes along
Somebody who for starters
Will have a pcket full of quarters
And will play that love's gone wrong song all night long

So

[CHORUS]

Somebody play the jukebox all night long
