Riding against the wind, you're sailing against the tide
Fighting for the cause, do or die
Yearning to shake it off when it gets too heavy
You have the power in your mind

You still believe it and I bet you always will
No time to conceal it move in for the kill

CHORUS:

Backstreet rebels, backstreet rebels
Backstreet rebels, backstreet kid

Loner all alone, no heart in the empty city
There's still a place where you belong
Calling from far away hear your anthem playing
The sound will lead you to your home

You're one in a million but you're crucial to your cause
You'll always deliver, you lay down the law
