"Love In Plaster"

I really thought
That we had somethin' movin' faster
Than love in plaster
I really thought
That we had somethin' growin' stronger
But it grew no longer
I thought this time
Yeah

I really thought
That we had somethin' set in motion
More than foul devotion
I really thought
That we had somethin' out of the ordinary
More than stationary
I thought this time
What we had you and I

Said, "I'm losin' my mind"
Yeah I got bit all the time
And I'm better off dead
'Cause it was all in my head
Now it's all lost
It's all gone
Don't I know it

I really thought
That we had somethin' more than a
Bore
I really thought
That we had somethin' more than a violation
Of my imagination
I thought this time
What we had you and I

Said, "I'm losin' my mind"
Yeah I got bit all the time
And I'm better off dead
'Cause it was all in my head
Now it's all lost
It's all gone
Don't I know it

And I'm better off dead

I really thought
It would work out
I learned it couldn't 'cause somehow
We couldn't get along
We wouldn't get along

A little somethin' on the side
Would make you feel more worthwhile
You think I won't be long
You couldn't be more wrong
I thought this time
What we had, you and I

Said, "I'm losin' my mind"
Yeah I got bit all the time
And I'm better off dead
'Cause it was all in my head

I said, "I'm losin' my mind"
Yeah I got bit all the time
And I'm better off dead
'Cause it was all in my head
Now it's all lost
And it's all gone
Don't I know it
