Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

(Well, all right)
I know just what you mean
(Well, all right)
And I know that it might seem

(Well, all right)
Should have better things to do
(Well, all right)
I'm so sick of it, this won't do

First in line but last to know
Move too fast but think too slow
People see me and they go, aah

Whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo
Whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo

(Well, all right)
Everyone's a loser in the modern world
(Well, all right)
Look at all the sad and gloomy little boys and girls

(Well, all right)
All of you got troubles, all of you got woes
(Well, all right)
Shake the chips off your shoulders, here is how it goes

Juggling chainsaws with just one hand
Falling down the stairs with a marching band
Swim across the ocean in a concrete suit
Trying to grow a beard but still look cute

Whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo
Whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo

On and on the world spins round
It's enough to get you down
But I don't worry 'cause sometimes
You just have to, whoo, hoo

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

(Well, all right)
I know just what you mean
(Well, all right)
And I know that it might seem

(Well, all right)
I should have better things to do
(Well, all right)
I'm so sick of it, this won't do

First in line but last to know
Move too fast but think too slow
People see me and they go, 'xcuse me

Whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo
Whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo, whoo, hoo

Everyone's a loser in the modern world
Look at all the sad and gloomy little boys and girls
I know all you got troubles, all you got is woes
Shake the chips off your shoulders, here is how it goes
Whoo, hoo
