You wanna dance and you really wanna let it go
You want it bad but the style has told you to go
You want it

You do it fast when you really should do it slow
You got it bad and this time I told you, no
You're on it

Hey, it's true but I wanna know
What you had or you did
So, just let it go, oh no

You wanna laugh and you really wanna let him know
You're so relaxed and you really gonna let it show
You want it

You really got what we worked through all the time
But you chose your way and I chose mine
You're on it

Hey, it's true but I wanna know
What you had or you did
So, just let it go

Oh no, remote control but you got it all
Oh no, you stand ten feet tall 'cause you got it all
Oh no, remote control but you got it all
You've got it all but you got it all wrong

We had a laugh but it turned into a don't
We had a life but now I wanna get out
You're on it

I was scared when I made love to you
I put a lid on it and thought, that's it, I'm through
You're on it

Hey, it's true but I wanna know
What you had or you did
So, just let it go

Oh no, remote control but you got it all

Oh no, you stand ten feet tall 'cause you got it all
Oh no, remote control but you got it all
Oh no, you stand ten feet tall 'cause you got it all

(Oh no)
And when I say you lose it, you don't believe it at all
(Oh no)
It's such a long way to fall but the writing's on the wall

(Oh no)
But when I saw you lose it, I can't even recall
(Oh no)
If it was the best of all, your brain, a pigeon-small

Because you got it all
And you got it all
And you got it all
But you got it all wrong
