[music: Dennis lyrics: Nick, Jake]

Eternal vivid dreams of past, now nightmares construct A new empire of headless puppets, industry of materialized madness

Horror in cyber, panic and viruses, flesh and steel now collided

Man-machine is tomorrow's generation Myths of past now stand alive Mechanical slaves and lords, darkness covers all like alons before

[chorus]

Abominations are dancing in a static rhythm
Their hypnotic eyes tell how life fades Crawling in the ground they're dying full of filth and innocence
The numbers are lost, orders are confused, disorder is defused

Frantic scientists enhance the human body Interstellar communication brings colonists from far beyond Alienation causes the crossiny of breeds Mutants are born and rule the world Capacity is exhausted and explosion is expected

Disintegration of my soul I liquify my flesh and bones Colors tip my eyes, blood dripping from my earsformless and faceless
I travel trough cables and cords loosing my share
I ejaculate in a sea of webs filled with eyes and senses
And I feel that time and space has no meaning here:
