[Don Rich]

Well I just bought my ticket from a ticket man and I'm gonna take the midnight train

I'm a gonna get in at a half past ten and I'm never gonna leave again

Well I'm gonna pick up where we left off because we gotta get enough to do

And you better realize if the creeks don't rise I'm a comin' back home to you

I'm a comin' back home to you I'm a comin' back home
to you

Well you better realize if the creeks don't rise I'm a comin' back home to you

[piano - steel]

Well round and round I cut out to be no I was out of my natural style

But a feller needs a chance to settle down and settlin' takes a while

But now I'm sure that it's you for me and none else will ever do

So get your weddin' dress on cause when I finish this song

I'm a comin' back home to you

I'm a comin' back home to you I'm a comin' back home
to you

song

I'm a comin' back home to you

I'm a comin' back home to you I'm a comin' back home
to you

I'm gonna be in second heaven down at quarter's eleven

I'm a comin' back home to you
