[Don Rich]

I sat home alone till I nearly climbed the walls
While you been out just a havin' yourself a ball
But I end up my mind today there's gotta be a better way

And love's gonna come a knockin' after all Well love's gonna come a knockin' at my door I'm gonna do what I should've done a long long time before

I'm gonna welcome it might end I ain't a gonna let it leave again

Yeah love's gonna come a knockin' at my door

[piano - steel]

It won't do no good before you save a dime
And just take my number I'll offer you party line I'm gonna find somebody who will love me like I once loved you

Yeah love's gonna come a knockin' at that time

Yeah love's gonna come...

Well now love's gonna come a knockin' at my door
