

Hobbs' Angel Of Death

"Bubonic Plague"

Lightning speeds across the sky

Torment your body and your mind

This is it your time has come

Now you bow your head

Ashes to ashes

Dust to dust disease will be spread

Now, now, it's time for you to die

Breathe, feel it in the air

Across the streets of London

Nothing else but death

Rats will have their feast before

The fire burns them to death

Now, now, it's time for you to die

Breathe, feel it in the air
