hello jesus welcome to see the inquisition of the blind are these people victims of your hate? are you dead or are you still alive?

bombs keep dropping from your heaven so nobody can say there's something wrong but we never could listen it was only a feather on the air for your own private perversion our world ends and no one will survive can you hear them all breathe? while they choke and you smile cry and make sure all the living listen to your cry singing the ending

while everyone just cries dying again

you and me apocalypse begins the rest die as all their believes hate is only a human disease can you just quit crying please? and if all we see is only an illusion you'd rather die or live inside of it? i am ready for the end don't want to turn it back

who's the dying disease?
is it inside of us? i wanna give it to you
you wanna give it to me
who's the dying disease?
will it kill us all?
and it'll eat our souls and it'll eat ourselves do you feel the touch?

don't close you eyes

never, don't let it die
no never again
feel the touch, don't close you eyes

die, die, do it again
everything vanishes
and this is our end
there's nothing here for you there's nothing here so die, die, die with your submissions die, die, die with your believes
